CS 597 – Special Topics: Information Retrieval
Presentations

Project proposal presentation

- 5 minutes per student
    - o 3 minutes will be dedicated for the student to give a quick overview of the proposed project
    - o 2 minutes will be dedicated for the class/instructor to provide feedback

Final project presentation
- 15 minutes per student
    - o 12 minutes will be dedicated for a the student to present his/her work
    - o 3 minutes will be dedicated for question/answering
- Students will be responsible for preparing slides that showcase the motivation for the problem, provide context, give an overview of the proposed solution, highlight the studies that demonstrate the correctness of the solution, and highlight conclusions and future work

Class presentations
- 35 minutes per student
    - o 25 minutes will be dedicated for presenting the key ideas and validation results introduced in the corresponding research paper
    - o 10 minutes will be dedicated for question/answering
- Students will be responsible for preparing slides that showcase the motivation for the problem presented in the corresponding paper, provide context, give an overview of the proposed solution, highlight the studies that demonstrate the correctness of the solution, and highlight contributions and conclusions.